

Setting the Research & Evaluation Agenda: Perspectives from a Sociologist of Education

Katharine M. Broton
University of Wisconsin - Madison

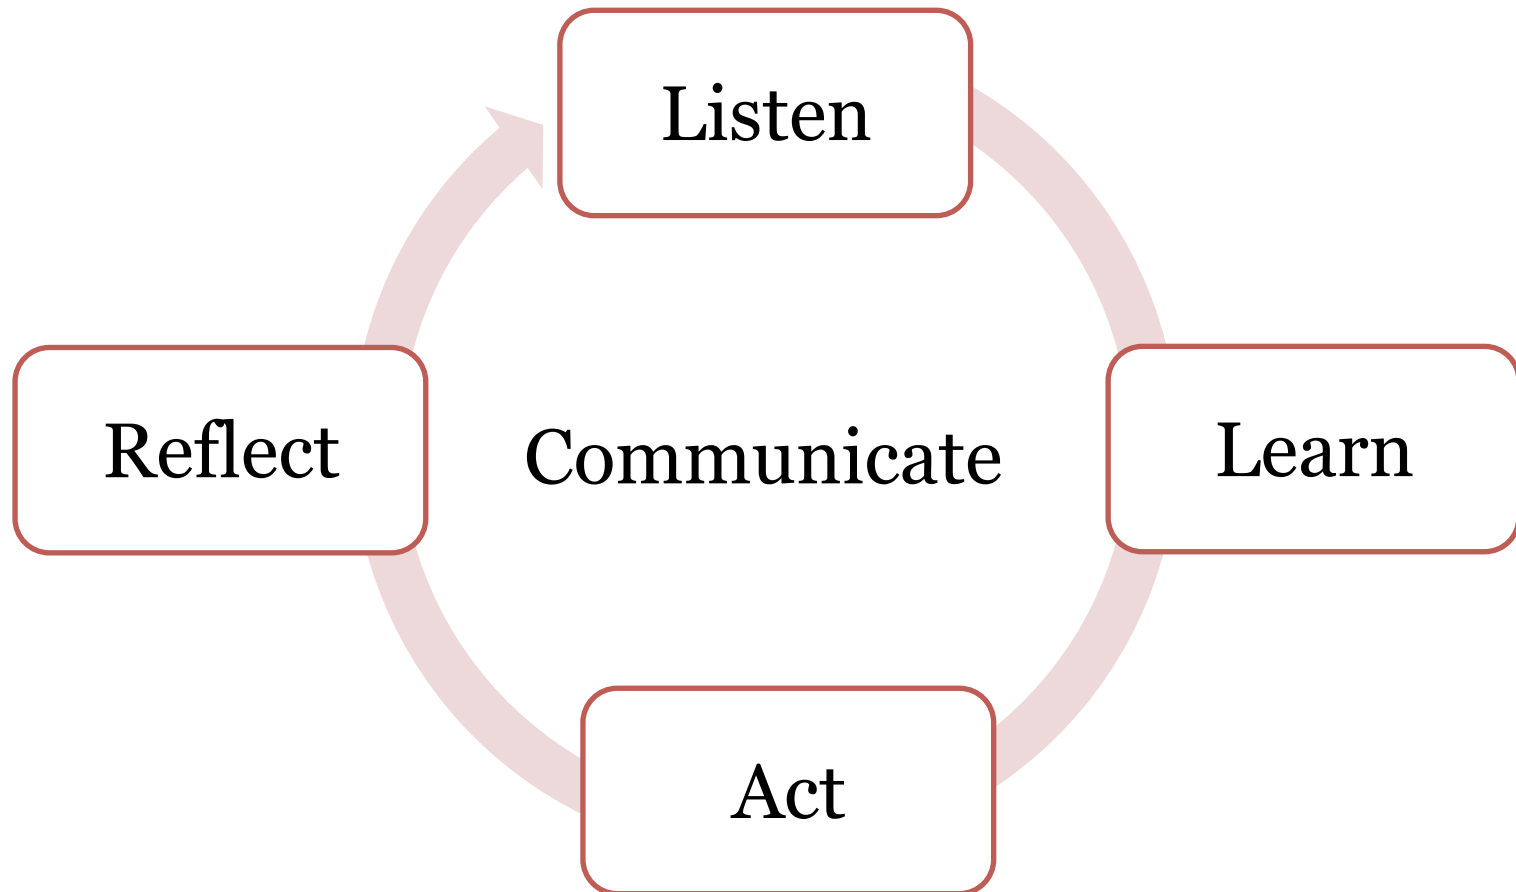

College Access & Completion

- College is more important than ever
 - Monetary and non-monetary benefits
- Access has expanded for students from low-income and poor families
- Large gaps in college completion by family background
- Consequences at the individual, institutional, and societal levels

Food & Housing Insecurity in Higher Education

Setting the Agenda: Food & Housing Insecurity in Higher Education

- Prevalence
 - Group, type, and correlates
- Relationship to academic outcomes
- Theory and conceptualization
- Practice and policy
 - Role of colleges
 - Higher education policies
 - Alignment with social policies
- Interventions and solutions